

Home School Agreement

The School Vision (extract)

'The staff and governors at Cockburn Haigh Road Academy are committed to delivering a rich and broad curriculum. All children and adults are loved and valued regardless of need, disability, culture and gender.

Parents are involved in their children's education. Supporting their academic and pastoral development progress is a priority to them and the school offers a multitude of opportunities for them to participate in their child's education.'

Children

I will:

- Try my best in all things, all of the time
- Be kind and respectful to other people
- Follow the school rules and class agreements
- Complete learning tasks both in school and at home
- Take care of school equipment, including my home learning pack
- Talk to adults about what makes me happy and what worries me

Parents

I/we will:

- Work in partnership with the school and its staff to achieve the best for my child and others within the school community
- Make sure that my child attends school on time, every day
- Contact school if my child is ill
- Support the school in making sure that children are aware of, and follow, the school rules
- Actively support home learning by helping your child at home and by attending parent support sessions in school and/or viewing parent support videos on the school YouTube channel
- Attend parent consultation meetings, either in person or by telephone
- Discuss what is going well, worries or problems with the class teacher in the first instance

School

I/we will:

- Work in partnership with children, parents and the community to achieve the best for every pupil
- Provide a safe, secure, happy and caring environment where everyone is treated with respect
- Provide a broad and balanced curriculum that gives learners the tools to achieve and fosters the enthusiasm they need to learn
- Help parents to understand how we work with children and how to support their progress both in and out of school, through regular parent support sessions
- Keep parents up to date with their children's progress and attainment both informally (eg conversations with the class teacher) and formally (termly attainment update)
- Celebrate success
- Keep parents/carers informed about school activities through regular newsletters, text messages, school website, Tapestry notifications and other notices

It is understood that by becoming a member of the school community, all parties are confirming that they will comply with the details and spirit of the agreement.
